Was an awesome success because of the timely response of Uber drivers to our ride requests. Calling a Cab company only to tell us there are 20+ minute waits with no followup was crazy. Being able to see where the driver was, and other riders feedback with their experiences, made me and my wife feel much safer than taking an actual anonymous cab.

Think about it, calling a phone number and someone saying you will get picked up in 10 minutes by a random person, vs. a real-time on-line display of the drivers around you, and feedback of real people on the drivers performance, is way better than the current entrenched big money wins system.

We are all safer passengers and customers with Uber. Dont make a big mistake.

Uber ride sharing is a great company, and a great value for transit. I recommend their reinstatement.

Sincerely,

Subject: Bring Uber back!

Taking away Uber is a huge blow to me and many many MANY people I know who use it on a regular basis for safety.

I have never driven when I feel fully intoxicated, but there have been many times I have driven home after having drinks out on weekend nights. Taxis were always a hassle -- when I did use them I had to call and hope they had availability and then basically wait on a curb. Which led to my simply not using taxis. Ever.

Since Uber has arrived, I have used it constantly. It's such a delight to know that for a reasonable rate I don't have to worry about pushing the limit and breaking the law or, God forbid, hurting someone (as little as I think the latter would happen).

I am DEVASTATED by your decision. The drivers I have met have all been great and considerate, have loved having Uber as a job, and it just makes things so much easier and so much safer for me.

And I'm not alone. I can't think of a friend of mine who is not actively Ubering now. We've all become a much safer responsible group, in my opinion.

Please understand how strongly I feel about this. It has changed my behavior exponentially.

Sad at this anti-business stance the state of South Carolina is taking against Uber. Cab service is horrible across this state and Uber has been a pleasant change from that.
